The Warranty Group Selected for Graphis 100 Best Annual Reports

CHICAGO, August 31, 2010 – The Warranty Group, Inc. today announced that its 2009 annual report has been selected to be included in Graphis' 100 Best Annual Reports 2011. Graphis, the international journal of visual communications, serves as a platform providing global exposure for outstanding design, advertising and photography.

The Warranty Group produces its annual reports utilizing internal resources for creative direction, design and copywriting. Additionally, all photography is original and representative of the company's global footprint, providing a visual essay on its products and associates.

"We are proud to be named to this prestigious group," said David Cole, Chairman and CEO of The Warranty Group. "This is the second time in three years that our team has been recognized for their achievements, and their work reflects the same passion and energy that our entire staff exhibits with every customer, everywhere in the world."

The Warranty Group Corporate Communications team provides creative resources for the company's global brand and directs global public relations and marketing communications.
